Biography:

Susan M. King has worked as an educator for over 35 years and for the Hillsborough County Public Schools for 20 years. She has served as the project manager for two MSAP federal grants and has worked to implement several magnet programs. Mrs. King presents and trains locally and nationally on a variety of topics including theme integration, instructional technology, curriculum development, and cultural competence. She also evaluates magnet schools and program in her district and at the national level. Prior to becoming the magnet supervisor, she developed and implemented a Call Center for the school district that helped to build a strong line of internal and external communication. While working in the public affairs office, Mrs. King managed media relations, district publications, and school board/community communications. She has also been featured in the Choice magazine and worked with the author to write and publish a chapter in Curriculum Leadership Development: A Guide for Aspiring School Leaders. She is an active member of the Magnet Schools of America. Board and was recently elected Secretary. Mrs. King has received the Hillsborough Association for School Administrators Distinguished Service award, has served as chairman of several district level committees, and was the Treasurer of the Consortium of Magnets/ Public Choice Schools, forerunner of the Florida School Choice Consortium.
