Biography:

Thomas Harvey is the Assistant Superintendent of Student and Community Services for the Omaha Public Schools. Mr. Harvey has been working in the field of education since 1966. He has been an elementary and middle school teacher, counselor, and assistant principal. Mr. Harvey served as a magnet school principal at McMillan Middle School and North High School. Under his guidance and direction, the magnet school programs at these schools were successfully planned and implemented. During his tenure as principal of North High, the school was cited for its excellent academic program in both Newsweek and Redbook magazines and was featured as a premiere high school on numerous television programs, including NBC's "Nightly News."
